PARTICIPANT COMMENTS

"It was refreshing that the participants were so respectful and well-prepared. Members of staff who hosted the event were also very gracious. I found this event to be a win-win for employers and job-seekers."

Dee Emami, IPMA-CP

Personnel Management Analyst, County of Ventura, Human Resources

"We were amazed at how receptive they were and grateful to learn of opportunities upon their release. One of the men we spoke to, upon release from custody, enrolled in our nine-month drug and alcohol recovery program. He has been with us for two months and exhibits a strong desire to change and lead a life free of crime and substance abuse. You did an excellent job coordinating the various service providers and showing these broken men there will be hope beyond the bars."

Carol Roberg, Director, Ventura County Rescue Mission

I was really impressed with how well prepared the inmates were, they all showed enthusiasm and appreciation for the job fair and those of us that attended. It was a great experience for me, and it felt very rewarding."
